On April 20, 2012, the controlling shareholder of TIM Participações (the "Company"), Telecom Italia S.p.A. ("Telecom Italia"), was notified by the Milan Public Prosecutor of the conclusion of a preliminary investigation under the Italian Code of Criminal Procedure in which three previous executives of Telecom Italia (including the current CEO of TIM Participações S.A.), were charged with obstruction of supervisory activity. The charges relate to (i) the alleged unlawful renewal of prepaid SIM cards after their normal termination date from 2006 to 2008, in the amount of 223,000 lines or 0.19% of Market Share in 2006; 2,742,000 lines or 1.88% of Market Share in 2007; and, 2,345,000 lines or 1.64% of Market Share in 2008, and (ii) around one million SIM cards which allegedly were not refilled in 12 months after their activation (184,000 lines in 2005; 445,000 lines in 2006; 335,000 lines in 2007; and 78,000 lines in 2008). Telecom Italia is in the process of reviewing the documentation relating to the investigation received from the Milan Public Prosecutor. Information regarding this investigation and that the Company's chief executive officer was a possible subject of such investigation has been previously disclosed by the Company.

In light of the foregoing developments, the Company will not proceed with the filing of its Annual Report on Form 20-F until it has had the opportunity to adequately consider the allegations and any relevant fact and take any required actions. The Company was unable to complete this process by April 30, 2012, without unreasonable effort or expense, and currently expects to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F on or before the 15th calendar day following April 30, 2012.
